Re: Your Client: Pleasanton Unified School District
Our Client: Jon Vranesh

Dear Ms. Bogard:

You will find enclosed a copy of the February 20, 2014-letter from Bill Faraghan, Assistant Superintendent, Human Resources, for the Pleasanton Unified School District ["PUSD"], to our client, Jon Vranesh. Under the not so veiled threat of his "release" or indeed termination as an administrator within the school District, Dr. Faraghan magnanimously presents Jon Vranesh with the "opportunity to resign" rather than to be fired from his position, presumably as an "Itinerant Principal"! I take it that must mean that, if he agreed to resign, he would not have to spend his days isolated from his colleagues, doing data entry, on Excel spreadsheets!

It is more than noteworthy that Dr. Faraghan admits that it is the PUSD "practice" to afford its valued employees, including principals, the "opportunity to resign from administration in lieu of release." Wow! We look forward to the opportunity, in the near future, to ascertain just how frequently the District has exercised that "practice" in recent years.

Jon Vranesh will not be resigning as an administrator within the District. Moreover, there is no objective reason for him to be released, removed or terminated as a PUSD administrator. Moreover, he will not allow himself to be beaten into submission by continued retaliatory, arbitrary actions by the District, including Superintendent Ahmadi and Dr. Faraghan. In other words, Mr. Vranesh has no intention whatsoever to go "quietly into the night."

At some point in time, the Board of Trustees and District may yet find themselves under the harsh, transparent light of public disclosure of the recent, yet ongoing, events pertaining to Mr. Vranesh, and indeed other principals within the District, and at that time, reason and fairness may yet find a day! I am,

Very truly yours,

H. Paul Kondrick, Esq.
