Dining Guide

One of the favorite pastimes in this region is dining out, and it's no wonder — there are so many fantastic restaurants. This guide covers the area from Alamo to Pleasanton, a veritable gourmand's paradise. It separates eateries by cuisine, from burgers to Chinese to Mediterranean. In the mood for Italian? How about sushi? Check out the appropriate sections to find the telephone numbers for your old favorites as well as to get ideas for new places to try. This guide is a publication of Pleasanton Weekly, Dublin TriValley Views, SanRamonExpress.com and DanvilleExpress.com. We hope you will use it to munch your way up and down the 680 corridor.

Chef & Owners Curtis and Esin deCarion strive to create cuisine that is fresh, seasonal, and prepared with great care.

The fare is American with bits of Mediterranean influences. The wine list has been recognized by Wine Spectator & Wine Enthusiast magazines. Be sure to save room for one of our fabulous desserts.

Located in the center of the Tri-Valley, McNamara's Steak and Chop House (patterned after the famous chop houses in Chicago) is situated near the junction of Highway 580 and 680, less than three miles from Bishop Ranch and Hacienda Business Park. Surrounded by San Ramon, Pleasanton, and Castro Valley, the restaurant is within minutes from Danville, Alamo and Livermore. If you are from out of town McNamara's is within two miles or less of most major hotels.

We serve only the finest hand selected Mid-western corn fed Angus beef, aged for a minimum of 21 days. We also take pride in serving our guests freshly delivered fish and daily baked bread. Our award winning wine list has continued to receive the "Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence" yearly since 2002.
